

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Rogelio Cadena | Shattuck St. Mary's

Rogelio graduated from Shattuck St. Mary's School with the Class of 2012. Afterwards, he graduated from The University of Miami with a Bachelor's in Architecture in 2017.

Most recently, Rogelio participated in a Smart City solutions competition with some of his former professors and mentors where they received first place. As a result, they were recognized by the City of Coral Gables and are in the process of meeting with the city to better enhance their transportation system.

Rogelio and his peers have also formed an architecture office called Studio Miami LLC where he continues to pursue his love of architectural work. You can view pictures of their work on Instagram at @StudioMiami.

Congrats to all our Alumni who are graduating from high school, undergrad, graduate school, law school, medical school - everywhere!
